Country's Largest Collection of Street Signs at Blackwell House

When the team at Blackwell House, Inigo's Centre in The City of London were asked by licensee The 1 if they could hang their own pictures on the wall, they had no idea that the proposed artwork was part of the largest private collection of street signs in the UK.

Mark Dixon, Director of The 1, Mergers and Acquisitions specialists for the recruitment industry, purchased the collection from Christies Auction House and is a keen art and antiques collector.
