

October 2011

“My Inigo office is a gorgeous place to work, because...”

19th – 23rd September was National Office Week and a national campaign to “make your office gorgeous” was launched. As gorgeous office space, along with friendly service, is a key principle of the Inigo approach week-in, week-out, we thought we’d do our bit for awareness by rewarding the client who could give us the most original feedback on ways Inigo succeed in brightening their working week.

We asked our clients to complete the following sentence and the winner would be awarded a bottle of champagne or online vouchers. We are pleased to say that we had a very positive and creative response! Here is a selection of the entries:

“My Inigo office is a gorgeous place to work, because...”

‘despite the fact that I am rarely there, when I am, you always welcome me with a smile, say thank you when I make you coffee and make a fuss of my kids (even when they only pop in to use your spotlessly clean toilets!)’ - Bath

‘A smiling face in the workplace brightens my day at a faster pace!’ - Bath

‘In I go harried and stressed, but out I come relaxed and impressed!’ - Basingstoke

‘My Inigo office is a gorgeous place to work because it pleases my clients with its place, peace and professionalism’ – Edinburgh

‘It is like a handmade chocolate – individual and inviting outside with a great centre inside!’ – Newbury

‘When I walk into the office and see you happy girls it’s the happiest day of my life over and over.’ – Windsor

The winner was Simon Morris in London, for his inventive poem!

My Inigo office is a gorgeous place
It’s based right in the City
At the corner of old Guildhall Yard, it’s really very pretty

Our lift is such a talking point attracting admiration
To find it on the floor you want
Is a reason for elation

Three ladies tend our every need
Deborah Annabelle and Cheryl
The finest team you’ll ever meet
Defame them at your peril!

Our balcony provides a matchless view
From the yard to NatWest Tower
And a handy spot for a cigarette
If you have a stressful hour

Thank you all who took part!